Junior Short Course Championships on this Weekend

Starting tomorrow at HBF Stadium is the Swimming WA Junior Short Course Championships. This 2-day event will feature 470 swimmers aged between 8 – 12 years competing in 126 events. The meet runs from 9 am – 4:30pm each day.

At this event the swimmers race to win Championship medals in their chosen events and they also aim to improve on their personal best times.

This event leads on from the Swimming WA State Age Short Course Championships and Swimming WA Open State Short Course Championships held earlier this month.

Results available on Meet Manager via this link: <http://liveresults.swimming.org.au/WA/18JuniorSC/>, plus updates from the event will be provided on the Swimming WA website and social media throughout the weekend.
