Rockingham for Round 4: The Open Water Swimming Series heads south for the 4th round of competition

Swimming WA's OWS Series is sure to attract many to Rockingham's beautiful foreshore beach as the event kicks off at 9:00am this Sunday 9 December 2018.

Rockingham's foreshore is a popular venue in the OWS Series and it is expected to attract over 500 swimmers this weekend.

The Summer Series kicked off at Leighton Beach on 3 November 2018 with 676 swimmers taking part. Round 2 in Busselton and Round 3 in Coogee of the OWS Series attracted record crowds, with the trend set to continue for Rockingham.

With four (4) distances on offer (500m, 1.25km, 2.5km and 5km), Round 4 will cater to swimmers of all ages and abilities. Thanks to presenting partners HHG Legal, The City of Rockingham and Naval Base Concrete, and the support of Nova 93.7 providing the tunes, hydration courtesy of Aussie Natural Spring Water, latest news coming from The West Australian and top-notch merchandise available from Vorgee, the Rockingham Round will not disappoint. Check-in is open at 8.00am on the day for a 9.00am start, with the 5 kilometre event commencing at 9.30am.

With the Open Water Series celebrating its 11th year, the Summer Series which runs from November 2018 through to March 2019, attracts over 6000 novice and competitive swimmers competing in 12
