

Media Release : 21st January 2018

HIGHLIGHTS FROM NIGHT THREE OF COMPETITION OF HANCOCK PROSPECTING WA SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Highlights from the final night of competition:

Mens 100m Butterfly : Nicholas Brown 54.09 (UWA West Coast) beat out the challenge from visiting Malaysian representative Jie Chan. There was battle throughout the race that was punctuated by a powerful final 20 metres from Brown. Jackson Govers (St Hildas) continued his strong performances shown through the meet coming in third with a time of 55:82.

Womens 200 Butterfly : Brianna Throssell (UWA West Coast) won in a time of 2:10.03. Brianna will be looking to make the Commonwealth Games Team in this event having come 4th in the 2015 world championships and 8th at the Rio Olympics. Brianna's PB is 2:06.58 that she achieved at Olympic trials in 2016.

Mens 200m Breaststroke : George Harley (Breakers) was too good for Alex Milligan (UWA West Coast) and Lennard Bremer (UWA West Coast). A hard judge of his own performance a disappointed Harley said in the post race interview that he was aiming to swim 2:10 but swam 2:12.7.

Mens 50m Freestyle : Olympian Tommaso D'Orsogna denied Bundi Dingjan (Southside Penrhos Wesley) his first state long course title in this event. D'Orsogna swam an impressive time of 23.07 despite admitting post race that he had a very poor start off the blocks. He is juggling his swimming training with full time university commitments as he is studying to be a doctor. He hopes that with hard six weeks preparation that he can make the Commonwealth Games Team.

Womens 200 Freestyle : The battle between Blair Evans and Brianna Throssell lived up to the hype. The UWA West Coast pair renewed their rivalry fighting out for the unofficial title of "WA Queen of Swimming". Throssell established a slight lead early and maintained it throughout winning in a time of 1:58.84. Evans time of 1:59.7 was also impressive.

Mens 100 backstroke : Zac Incerti (UWA West Coast) won in 56.68. With this time, he is favourite to make Commonwealth Games Team in this event. He said post race that January had been a big month of training and he hope that he has put in the work to taper down and swim fast at next month's trials. Josh Edwards Smith (UWA West Coast) swam the race in 57:53 - an Australian Age Record (14 years old). Josh recently broke the national age record in the 200 backstroke, and he is now undisputedly the fastest 14 year old backstroker in the nation.

Mens 4x 100 Freestyle : UWA West Coast broke a 13 year old state record with 3:26:24. The team was Josh Edwards Smith, Tommaso D'Orsogna, Alex Milligan and Christopher Paunich.

Womens 4x 100m Freestyle : UWA West Coast team of Emma Bond, Hadley Lindsay, Jemima Horwood and Kara Broadbridge broke a state all comers record from 1995 with a time of 3:51.12.

For all of the finals results from Night Three please visit www.wa.swimming.org.au.

Ends.....

Media Enquiries:

Naomi Quinlivan
Candy Stripe Public Relations
0408 598 977
naomi@candystripepr.com.au